DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to because the identification of each drawing by figure number should not be enclosed by parentheses. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

An example of problems with the language is the use of “lights” instead of --light-- which appears frequently in the specification – see for example paragraphs 0003, 0004 and 0005.

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase “Not Applicable” should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).

Art Unit: 2885

- (I) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

The titles of the various sections of the specification should not be enclosed in parentheses. In addition, as noted above, the Brief Description of the Drawings needs to appear before the detailed description of the invention. The list of drawing figures should not be enclosed in parentheses. Also it is not clear what is meant by the "Description of Notations" on page 88.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In Claims 1-12, the language "for a curved surface of the rough surface" is awkward. Is applicant attempting to define the rough surface as being made up of curved surfaces? Also in the claims " θ_{nv} (degree)" should be written as θ_{nv} , no parentheses with "n" and "v" being defined. Also "(59-20n)" needs to be written as $59-20n$. There should not be any limitations in the claims enclosed within parentheses. Claims 3 and 4 set forth equations after the period in the claim. The period should be after all limitations in the claim and should be written as $\dots (1)$ to indicate the equation. In addition, claims 3 and 4 set forth equations in the alternative. The claim limitations must be clearly set forth with no alternative language. Also the equal signs or other mathematical signs appear to be missing in claims 3 and 4. In claim 3 something needs to appear before "22" and after "30 and before "140". In claim 4, something needs to be inserted before "35" and after "60" and before "350". Also the language (1) or (2) in claim 3 and (3) or (4) needs to be changed because of the alternative language and because the equations have not yet been set forth in the claim. In claims 3 and 4, "satisfy the following equation" should follow with the actual equation.

In Claim 5, the period needs to be after the equation and the bracketed language at the end of the claim needs to have the brackets removed if it is part of the claim and there should only be one period in the claim. It is not clear what [#1] refers to. The same problems appear in Claims 6-12. Also it is not clear what the bracketed number means before the equation when there is a number for that particular equation after the equation. As set forth above, the brackets need to be removed for these limitations that follow the equation.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Bourdelais, Masaki et al, Parker et al and Yokota et al are cited of interest.
